Risks of Investing

Investment in Stocks, Bonds, Funds, Options, Commodities, and other financial derivatives and instruments involve financial risk and are not suitable for all investors. Past performance is no guarantee of future profit. And, while risk may vary widely between the various investment pathways and techniques presented in the programs below mentioned below, I understand that I should never invest more money than I can afford to lose.

ILAB is an Education Presentation Only

Examples used in ILAB are offered for education and instructional purposes only. Future World Corporation, (which, together with its officers and employees will be collectively hereafter referred to as FUTURE WORLD) is the publisher of ILAB. Under no circumstances should I consider the examples, suggestions, or results of applying an ILAB investment formula to a group of investment alternatives to constitute a recommendation to buy or sell any stock, bond, fund, or other financial instruments.

No investment advice offered

I understand that Dr. Dän Lee Dimke, PhD, (hereafter referred to as, Dr. Dimke), the author and narrator of the ILAB program, is not a registered financial adviser or broker. Neither Dr. Dimke nor FUTURE WORLD represents any brokerage or investment firm. Nor should any of their comments be considered in any way to constitute investment advice of any kind.

All investment responsibility rests solely upon the investor

I understand and agree that all my investment decisions are my responsibility alone, regardless of whether or not have used any of the information, techniques, formulas, examples, listings or other data presented in ILAB or the Billion Letter to influence or guide those decisions. I agree to hold Dr. Dimke and FUTURE WORLD, harmless of any liability for any information and/or guidance they have provided or may provide in the future through ILAB. Should any conflict or dispute arise from any of the information that these programs or Dr. Dimke or FUTURE WORLD have provided to me, I agree that its resolution will be determined by arbitration in Irving, Texas, USA, and I waive my rights to a trial and jury and also waive any and all punitive damages.

No professional services rendered

Neither Dr. Dimke nor FUTURE WORLD is engaged in rendering legal, financial, tax, or other professional services. His comments regarding tax consequences in any of the examples in the ILAB are based on only the most generic concept of income and capital gains taxes based on the general characteristics of taxation common to many (but not all) of the world's leading industrialized nations. I understand that none of comments or opinions presented in ILAB should be construed to apply to any of my personal and unique tax circumstances. If such tax or other professional assistance is required, I understand that I should seek the services of a competent professional.

Investment Disclosure

Dr. Dimke and FUTURE WORLD fully disclose that they may, from time to time, invest in any or all of the stocks, funds, or other investment vehicles mentioned in ILAB. However, neither Dr. Dimke, nor FUTURE WORLD acts as an officer or representative, nor do they sit on any board of directors, nor do they own a controlling interest in any of the publicly traded stocks or funds or other investments referred to in ILAB (with the exception of Future World Corporation, itself, whose shares of stock are not, and have never been, publicly traded.)

Agreement not to disclose proprietary and copyrighted material

I further understand that the ILAB contains proprietary, copyrighted information. Its value, at least in part, is derived from the relatively few people who understand and employ its unique methods. In view of this, I agree not to disclose to anyone beyond the members of my immediate family who are also living in the same household.

License Prohibits Resale or Redistribution of ILAB Information

The ILAB information, and the media on which it is recorded or presented are licensed to me for my personal use only. This means that I do not own the information contained in this program and I am not permitted to resell the original media or the information it contains, or to disclose it to any other third party, except to another immediate family member as provided above.

Agreement Not to Duplicate or Share ILAB Information

I also agree not to duplicate or disseminate this proprietary information or cause or allow my copy of it to be duplicated or disseminated in any way by any means, in English or other languages. (NOTE: Violation or infringement regarding materials protected by the provisions of U.S. Copyright statutes, anywhere in the world, are investigated by the FBI (Federal Bureau of Investigation), and may subject the violator to substantial fines and/or prolonged imprisonment.)

Continuing Benefits Contingent Upon Agreement Compliance

By adhering to the terms of this mutual agreement, I understand that I may continue be eligible to receive additional follow-up information and services that are made exclusively available only to ILAB clients.

Severability Clause

If the provisions of any above paragraph(s) shall be determined to be inapplicable or unenforceable, the remaining paragraph shall continue to remain in full force and effect.

I certify and affirm my commitment to all the term of this agreement with my signature below.
